

Wave operators: Beyond existence, completeness, and boundedness

Serge Richard (Nagoya University)

During this seminar we shall motivate and present new types of investigations on the wave operators in scattering theory. The motivation comes from an algebraic framework but the investigations are mainly of analytical nature. The main results will be illustrated on several models.