

Boundary value problem for 2D nonlinear Schrödinger equations

林 仲夫 (大阪大学)

We consider the inhomogeneous Dirichlet-boundary value problem for the quadratic nonlinear Schrödinger equation which is considered as a critical case for large time asymptotics of solutions in 2D. We present sufficient conditions on initial and boundary data which ensure asymptotic behavior of solutions.